

John C. Berkley has over 19 years of experience in the Information Technology (IT) industry. He has held several positions in IT ranging from Senior Programmer Analyst to Project Lead and Lead Analyst. He has also worked on local management teams, which involved recruitment, marketing, and business development. Currently, Mr. Berkley is an IT specialist at the Social Security Administration, where during his 5-year tenure he has successfully completed the Systems Rotational Program. Mr. Berkley's professional experience extends beyond the workforce. He is a 25-year member of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc., and is the current Vice Basileus (Vice President) for Pi Omega Chapter (the Baltimore Graduate Chapter). He is also a member of the Maryland Business Roundtable for Education (MBRT) Achievement Counts Speakers Bureau and sits on the MBRT Speakers Advisory Board. Mr. Berkley is a graduate of the Baltimore Polytechnic Institute, where he was also a member of the Math Engineering Science Achievement Program. He received a B.S. degree in computer science from the University of Maryland, Baltimore County, and earned an MBA in international business from the University of Baltimore.