What I Have Learned

Think about the newspaper story that you wrote. Think about the process that you went through. Pair up with a partner and answer the questions below.

1) What have you learned about writing a newspaper story? Give five examples.

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

2) What did you like about being a reporter? Give two examples.

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

3) Would you ever want to become a reporter? Give two reasons why or why not.

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________